

EAST HARBOR STATE PARK

East Harbor State Park is a great place to be surrounded by nature. There are a lot of trails throughout the park that offer great views for bird-watching. Along the trails are ponds full of birds, ducks, geese, turtles, and swans. East Harbor also offers camping sites that follow ADA guidelines. Lastly, the park has a large sandy beach with views of Kelley’s Island and Perry’s monument on South Bass Island.

WHAT IS OFFERED

- Swimming
- Hiking
- Bird watching

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Lots of parking spaces
- 2 handicapped spots by the beach without signage
- Restrooms
- A ramp that leads down to the sand from the parking lot
- Picnic tables
- Lots of trees that offer shade
- Dirt/ sand trails through the woods
- Paved trails along the main road

TASKS

- Have a picnic
- Birdwatch
- Walk along the trails
- Play in the sand
- Swim
- Fish

TOOLS

- Beach scavenger hunt
- Nature scavenger hunt
- Binoculars to Birdwatch

